Any dispute arising under this Agreement which cannot be settled at the shop level is to be referred in writing to the Joint Conference Committee within sixty (60) days after the grieving party knew of the existence of the facts or circumstances giving rise to the dispute.

and promptly, but if the Union charges that such orders are discriminatory or are outside the authority granted in the contract, then recourse to the Joint Conference Committee shall be prompt and procedure under the Joint Conference Committee clause shall not be delayed. In consideration of such promptness and undelayed action, interpretation of the contract by chapel or Union officers in conflict with orders of the foreman is forbidden. Thus, uninterrupted production and publication are guaranteed and immediate recourse to peaceable but binding grievance procedure is assured.

Any order given by the foreman responsible for such issue shall be complied with, and all work shall continue without interruption or curtailment pending settlement or decision by the Joint Conference Committee.

To deter the Union and the Employer from referring to the Joint Conference Committee trivial complaints or presenting grievances without just cause, the Joint Conference Committee or the Arbitration Board may, in its discretion, assess the cost of any case against the party presenting such trivial or undeserved case or cases for trial, otherwise the cost shall be divided equally between the two parties.

The Joint Conference Committee shall recognized that in the execution of this contract the parties hereto recognize and accept their obligations to maintain a peaceful and constructive relationship, and that there shall be no strikes, sympathy strikes, lockouts, vacations, absenteeism, or other forms of concerted action intended or tending to abridge the normal regular publication of the newspaper and that there shall be applied the spirit of cooperation and coordination between the parties that will give full and complete recognition to the mutuality of interests involved in the regular publication of the newspaper.

SECTION 44. This Agreement shall be binding upon the Publisher and its successors and assigns and no provision herein contained shall be nullified or affected in any manner as a result of any consolidation, sale, transfer, or assignment of the Publisher or by any change to any other form of business organization. The Publisher agrees that it will not conclude any of the above transactions unless an agreement has been entered into as a result of which this Agreement shall continue to be binding on the person or persons or any business organization continuing its business. The Publisher agrees that it will provide the Union with at least thirty (30) days prior written notice of any such consolidation, sale, transfer or assignment. It is expected that the crew will do all work required by the foremen associated with the removal and replacement (in and out) of rollers, removal and replacement of blankets, or maintenance and/or cleaning duties if not enough blanket or roller work is needed to be done, dependent upon time availability. It is understood in making such assignments of work, the foremen will take into consideration the circumstances then being confronted and roller crew employees will put forth their best efforts to perform the work assigned in an efficient and workman-like manner.

Dear Mr. Heffernan:

During the recent negotiations for an amended labor agreement, the Post and the Union were uncertain as to the amount of roller and blanket removal and replacement work that could reasonably be expected on a scheduled, dedicated shift for preventative maintenance work. The parties wishing to foster and promote a cooperative working relationship, have agreed to the following in order to have sufficient information available for them to arrive at an informed and reasonable agreement:

The Post and Union agree that for a scheduled, dedicated day of roller and blanket maintenance, the roller crew employees will do all work associated with the removal and replacement (in and out) of rollers and blankets. The normal number of rollers, absent unusual events or circumstances outside of the roller crew's control, to be removed and replaced for the first six (6) months after full operations have commenced at the Bronx facility will be between eight (8) rollers in and eight (8) rollers out and ten (10) rollers in and ten (10) rollers out; or, in lieu of rollers between twenty-four (24) and thirty (30) blankets, or any combinations thereof using a formula of three (3) blankets equals one (1) roller.

At the end of the first six (6) months after full operations have commenced at the Bronx facility, the parties will meet to review the amount of work being assigned on a scheduled, dedicated roller and blanket preventative maintenance shift to ensure that the amount required is not unduly burdensome.

Sincerely yours,

Agreed:

Dear Mr. Heffernan:

There will be established a casual rate of $150 a day for all casuals regardless of the work performed except when a casual is elevated to journeyman status in which case the casual shall receive the journeyman's rate of pay. This will be the rate upon which all future raises for casuals will be based. The Publisher will maintain a bookkeeping account of all casual shifts, other than when performing as a journeyman, performed after ratification of this agreement. The account will be credited the difference between the casual rate and 83.36 percent of the Journeymen rate. In December of each year, the Union President will notify the company of distribution of this fund equally among all non-supervisory employees on the Post priority list. The President may elect to place the money in a) 401k account subject to receiving IRS approval b) Health and Welfare Fund or c) Pension Fund.

After ratification by the Union, the foregoing changes and letters will be incorporated into the parties' collective bargaining agreement.

Sincerely yours,

Agreed:
